

I have known Michael and Nancy E. for a long time now and they are first and foremost my friends. I have never seen them as aggressive people. Even when arguing with Sissie they seem calm, never angry. I have only seen Sissie show anger and aggression towards them.

I went to a roping club meeting one night and as soon as the meeting started Ruben and Sissie began to fight with Michael and Nancy. The fight was about the meeting being recorded by a recorder. Then Sissie started talking about how she would hurt Mike and Nancy's horse Chilly pepper. Sissie was then escorted out by Ruben, surely to keep her from making anymore threats toward Mike and Nancy.

Mike and Nancy are good people and I could never see them hurt, let alone ~~stake~~ stalk anyone.
